

Thriving Schools Index

Measure your school's community using the Thriving Schools Index (TSI). Gather data from parents, staff and students and compare your findings to the national benchmark.

Key benefits:

- + Understand the health of your school community across key stakeholders including staff, students and parents
- + Lead boldly into the future with robust evidence
- + Rely on benchmarked insights against national data to see performance gaps and strengths
- + Find improvement areas and celebrate strengths in your school community
- + Regularly engage your school community to keep your finger on the pulse

What you get:

- + A survey of your staff, students and parents using our standard Thriving School Index survey
- + An insights report featuring graphs, analysis, key findings, and a national benchmark
- + A presentation and workshop tailored to your school, leadership team, and staff, featuring McCrindle's education trends, your school's insights, and recommendations to futureproof your school.

What is the Thriving Schools Index?

The McCrindle Thriving Schools Index (TSI) measures 3 key school stakeholders (staff, parents and students) across 6 key domains (student development, teaching, student wellbeing, schooling experience, connection & belonging, leadership) with 4 measures per domain to give a unique Thriving School Index score for your school. Plus, you get a score for each stakeholder group. Your overall school score can be compared against the national benchmark and tracked over time as you redeploy the survey annually.
