

Christmas Eve has 9h 43m of darkness

3.5 milliseconds

time per Aussie home Santa has to deliver to 9.9m households

Hours of daylight on Christmas Day

Hobart

15h 20m

Longest daylight

Darwin

12h 52m

Shortest daylight

Top three things we love about Christmas

1. Time with family

2. Food

3. Christmas mood

Most hoped for gifts

1.

Technology

2.

Experiences

Gen α

311,104 babies

celebrating their first Australian Christmas

Based on more than 70 years of Christmas Day weather data

Chance of sunny day

Perth

87%

Chance of rain

Darwin

58%

1.5 billion calories

consumed if Santa eats just one cookie per Australian home on the night before Christmas

Sunrise on Christmas day

Earliest
Brisbane
4:51am

Latest
Darwin
6:20am

Sunset on Christmas day

Earliest
Brisbane
6:44pm

Latest
Hobart
8:50pm

If every Australian over 15 gave just 3 Christmas cards and they were stacked in a pile, they would stand almost 60km tall. That's out of the stratosphere!

34 couples married

on Christmas day last year

23% of Australians regift

That means there are 4.7 million recirculating gifts this Christmas